Still flying high at 92!

At 92 years of age, Mel Mattsen is frail, homebound, and unable to cook a meal for himself.

But, he is happy and grateful for each day because he has a great hobby to keep him busy, and looks forward to the friendly visitor and meal he will receive from Meals on Wheels of Contra Costa.

“As a youngster, I used to go to the Dime Store and buy gadgets and small toys so that I could take them apart and put them back together again!” “I’ve always loved to tinker with things, but I have a simple mind and I like things to be simple.”

And, it was easy to see how this philosophy manifested itself in Mel. His home is full of beautifully hand-crafted model airplanes. “I have designed more than 70 model planes and have developed 33 simple parts that make 14 simple model planes!

Mel grew up in California and worked in shipyards up and down the West Coast. In fact, he and his father owned a shipyard for many years and that business landed him in Contra Costa County where there were a number of shipyards from 1941–1945.

Mel and his wife of 67 years raised 2 children in Contra Costa County. "Bernice was the artist and the caretaker of our family, says Mel." Many of her paintings hang in the hallways and a picture of Bernice sits on a chair in the living room just next to Mel’s chair. For many years before Bernice passed away Mel had hip trouble and was wheelchair-bound and unable to drive. Bernice took care of him. With his family living outside of California, it became necessary to seek assistance from Meals on Wheels of Contra Costa in November of 2009.

When I asked Mel about the Meals on Wheels Program he said “Couldn’t beat it.” “My favorite meal is the BBQ and I can eat half for lunch and the other half for dinner.” “I am amazed at how well-balanced the meals are.” “I don’t know what I'd do without Meals on Wheels!”

Mel is definitely still “flying high” at the ripe young age of 92!

$100K Sequestration cut hits hard!

Meals on Wheels in Contra Costa County is being cut by $100,000 this year thanks to the so-called federal Sequestration. If Congress fails to act by the end of March, the program will have to begin reducing the number of homebound elders who receive Meals on Wheels deliveries. Your contributions to Meals on Wheels of Contra Costa will help limit this devastation.

Dear Meals on wheels,

For Hannukah this year, my parents gave me money to give to a charity. I decided to give my money to Meals on Wheels because they feed people who can’t physically get food themselves. Also, my great-grandparents in Brooklyn relied on Meals on Wheels. Have a Happy Holiday!

Love,
Sarah Graup
At their annual flea market, the San Pablo Advisory Board, the Davis Park Senior Center, and the Committee on Aging raised $7,500 to help the plight of homebound and frail Contra Costa seniors.

Each member of the group sold 200 $1 tickets and held a raffle amid facilitating and working diligently at the flea market. This year, they sold 3,000 tickets!! St. Joseph’s Cemetery also bought $300 in tickets. Three lucky raffle winners won $400, $200 or $100!

Ricardo Carranza, the Café Manager, sold tickets during lunch, at City Hall, and during Saturday Bingo. During the flea market, the volunteer cooks make hot dogs, chili beans, and lots of great food. They started their work at 7am and didn’t stop until all the merchants sold their goods!

Paul Kraintz, Co-Founder of Meals on Wheels of Contra Costa says “the folks at the San Pablo Senior Center have always donated generously to Meals on Wheels. We have always been impressed with them for putting so much time and effort into this annual event to provide a warm meal and friendly visit for homebound seniors in Contra Costa County.”

Meals on Wheels keeps seniors out of nursing homes!
A Brown University Newsletter article recently reported a study at that institution which firmly established the link between Meals on Wheels and a significant reduction in nursing home placements of “low-care” seniors. To view this article go to:

Courage to stay strong

Born in San Francisco on June 30, 1949, Armando Morales was the first-born in his family of 5. He and his three siblings were raised by his mother. “Life without a father was difficult, but we managed with support from friends, and a lot of faith.” A framed picture of his mother sits front and center on his kitchen table.

Armando recalls the day his brother was drafted into the Army and was deployed to Vietnam. “My mother was heartbroken.” And not too long after his brother was drafted, Armando enlisted in the Army and served 6 months in Vietnam. “As an Army Specialist, I worked in Anti-Mine Units and in the Unit Police.”

While in Vietnam, Armando fell ill with scarlet fever and was sent to Germany to recover. After a slow recovery, he stayed in Germany and worked with the Army in the Engineer Corp for 2 years.

“The Army was tough, but our Sergeant cared a lot about us and was like a father-figure to me. I was only 19 at the time. I called him Pa.”

When he was discharged, Armando returned to San Francisco and worked for the U.S. Treasury Mint as a Verification Clerk for many years. Unfortunately, he once again became gravely ill and was in a coma for almost four months. “I had to re-learn to speak, walk and eat.” After his recovery he began receiving daily delivered meals through Meals on Wheels of Contra Costa.

“I am so grateful to Meals on Wheels. I trust the volunteers and look forward to their visits each day. The chicken meal is my favorite, but I like all of them.”
